Certificate For No Information Reporting On The Sale Or Exchange Of A Principal Residence

File #	#: I	•

This form may be completed by the seller(s) of a principal residence. This information is necessary to determine whether the sale or exchange should be reported to the seller(s) and to the Internal Revenue Service on Form 1099-S, Proceeds From Real Estate Transactions. If the seller(s) property completes Parts I and III, and makes a "true" response to assurances (1) through (6) in Part II (or a 'not applicable" response to assurance (6)), no information reporting to the seller(s) or to the Service will be required. The term "seller(s)" includes each owner of the residence that is sold or exchanged. This, if a residence has more than one owner, a real estate reporting person must either obtain a certification from each owner (whether married or not) or file an information return and furnish a payee statement for any owner that does not make the certification.
